

More Brain Calisthenics with Trivia

1) This 1964 hit by 'The Drifters' speaks of a place you can find peace, shade, and privacy on the beach. [Hint: Coney Island is famous for theirs.] Name that song: _____

2) In one of Frank Sinatra's 1955 hits he sings about two things that "go together like a horse and carriage". What are they? _____ & _____

3) In the 1950's, when rock and roll had made its debut in the United States, this flexible man wrote the song, "That's All Right, Mama". Name that artist: _____

4) In this 1960's song performed by 'The Drifters', they request the following "Darling save this last _____ for me".

5) In a portion of this 1960's hit by 'The Shirelles', they sing the following: "Tonight you're mine completely, you give your love so sweetly, tonight the light of love is in your eyes." What is the question she then asks?

6) This song, performed by Elvis Presley, hit the charts in 1962. Elvis sang about the United States Postal Service returning a letter back to the person who sent it. Name that song? _____
Next, write as many lyrics to the chorus as you're able to recall.

7) In this 1956 hit by Fats Domino, he sings about a place where he 'found his thrill'. Name that song: _____

8) "Whatever is meant to happen will", is a portion of the lyrics in this 1956 song by Doris Day, which has a French title. Name that song: _____

9) February 3, 1959 became known as 'The Day the Music Died' when these three talented singers died in an airplane crash. 1. _____
2. _____ 3. _____

10) This song became a favorite after it was featured in the movie, 'Breakfast at Tiffany's', starring Audrey Hepburn. M _____ R _____